Christian Kleinjans Campaign Launch and Fundraiser on January 23

Christian Kleinjans, the Democratic candidate running for Ottawa County commissioner in the District 2 recall special election, is announcing his official campaign launch and fundraiser event. The event will take place from 5-7 pm on January 23 at Hopland Brewstillery, located at 977 Butternut Drive, Holland. In addition to Kleinjans, remarks will be given by Doug Zylstra, Ottawa County commissioner in District 3; Kim Nagy, interim executive director of Ottawa Integrity PAC; and Larry Jackson, chair of the Ottawa County Democratic Party.

Kleinjans is enthusiastic about the prospect of serving the residents of District 2, where he and his wife have lived for nearly 30 years. He is running to move Ottawa County forward and restore the responsible governance that Ottawa County citizens had come to expect and appreciate.

“I see a positive future for voters of the 2nd district and the county,” Kleinjans said. “But our success and growth haven’t been an accident. The past county governance created a fiscally responsible engine attuned to the needs of all, but that engine is in the process of being wrecked. I believe I can contribute to turning it around, working with fair-minded colleagues who govern with common sense and good judgment.”

Kleinjans, a U.S. Navy veteran who has worked in the nonprofit sector for 25 years, will bring a lifetime of service to the position of county commissioner — service to country, service to community, and service to family.

The event is sponsored by UA Local 174 Plumbers & Pipefitters and hosted by Doug Zylstra, Melanie Scholten, Kim Nagy and Angie Prescott.
